Principal's Message

Every institution walks along the lives of innovation and improvement. It is through these two facets that we re-invent ourselves. At Ruby Park Public School, the students and the teaching fraternity have been trying at every step to add to the enrichment of this educational hub. We also believe in sharing with all around us, the multifarious activities that school has been involved in. We invite suggestions from all our readers and sincerely hope that the first copy of our newsletter is well appreciated.

MOM

Mom is such
A special word
The loveliest
I've never heard.

A toast to you,
Above all the rest
Mom, you're so special
You are simply
The best.

The World of Dreams

A world where I'd like to live in,
A world that is green and clean,
A world full of butterflies,
A world where people do not tell lies,
A world full of tall green trees,
A world where the flowers bloom,
A world where I can build my own house,
A world where there are no wars,
A world where people walk with their heads held high,
A world always happy,
A world where there is no misery,
A world where animals are free.

My Morning Routine

When the clock strikes six in the morning
I get my first warning
Hurry up ,you will be late!
It's already seven past eight
Oh! Mom, where is my tie?
I would always loudly cry
Where is my Geometry box?
And where are my socks?
Goodbye , Mom and Dad, I would say
I hope I wouldn't miss my bus,
That's what I pray
Atlast I reach the bus stop
With my heart beating non-stop
Finally I climb the bus
And on a seat I adjust
Still eating my nuts
But no ifs and buts
Then I realized I forgot my specs
Oh ! what would happen next
Completely exhausted I reach school
Where I follow every rule.

Chandrayaan-2

It was but a little sad,
 When on 14th July, something went bad,
 And deferred the launch of our moon probe
 But we held on and had high hope,
 That the scientists will surely find a remedy
 And make "Bahubali" all the more ready;
 To begin it's mission to the distant moon
 And so it happened on 22nd afternoon!
 With baited breath we all kept watch
 There was anxiety, tension much;
 When finally the moment came
 And ISRO was crowned with name and fame;
 For Chandrayaan-2 successfully leapt into the sky
 Bidding us all a happy good bye
 Smiles were replete on the scientists face
 For finally labour has borne fruit with grace
 It was gruelling a mammoth task
 But in sweet success they all now bask!
 They have made every Indian proud!
 From the elite to a commoner in the crowd!
 We all do share the success of ISRO!
 Kudos to the scientists, Bravo! Bravo!
